RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On May 15, 2020, Marsully Gonzalez filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered an on-Table shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine she received on January 29, 2018. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 4, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent states that Petitioner “had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction in her left shoulder; her pain occurred within 48 hours of receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; her pain and reduced range of motion were limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality was identified to explain her symptoms.” Id. at 6-7. Respondent further agrees that the six month sequela requirement has been satisfied. Id. at 7.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
